

Ipswich: S1/2/31.6

f.1

Manor of Debenham Butley

Survey of the said Manor, made by careful examination of perambulations, court rolls, old extents and other evidence of that Manor, viz. of all the lands, tenements and hereditaments, both free and bond, held of the Manor and belonging to it and being located in the towns and fields of Debenham, Wetheringsett, Aspall, Kenton, Soham Monachorum, Soham Comitibus, Ashfield Thorpe, Winston and Mickfield in County Suffolk, on the oaths of Edward Unger the elder, gent., George Phillips, William Drane, Reginald Mayhew, James Harrison, Reginald Eade, Thomas Barker, Christopher Cowper, Reuben Feveryere, John Aldrich, John Webber, John Barker, William Motts, Edward Mayor, Mark Catchpoll, Thomas Peake, James Fuller, Charles Assey, William Gwys, Roger Lake, William Edgar, John Gowyn, Robert List, John List and William List, being present, in due form, of the homage sworn in at the Court Baron and survey of the Manor held in the name of Charles Gaudy, Knight, lord of the said manor, by John Pulham, gent., Steward, taken on the Monday before the feast of St. Matthew the Apostle viz. 17 September 19 James, by grace of god king of England, France and Ireland, Defender of the Faith and c., and of Scotland 55, A.D. 1621.

f2.

Edward Unger the elder, gent., holds copyhold of the lord of this manor in the right of Elizabeth his wife, a Capital Messuage or tenement, once a cottage, with the buildings, houses, barn, apple orchard, garden and pigstye adjoining, with the appurtenances, in Debenham, formerly Elizabeth Bond's situated together between the land of the lord called Le Pryory Lane on the E. and demesne land of the lord of this manor on the W. and abutting on copyhold land of this fee now in the tenure of William Motts to the N. and on the highway leading from Debenham Market to Kenton called Le Downerowe to the S., containing together, by estimation, 1 1/2 acres, at a rent p.a. of 3s., suit of court and other service as appears in the court rolls of 14 and 28 Hen. VIII (and 38 Eliz. and by the rental of 2 and 3 Phil. and M. fol. 5)

(in margin: 1710 now John Lomax; now Jo. Davy 1710)

Richard Mutley, Clerk, holds copyhold of the lord of this manor a Garden formerly Thomas Maddock's, lying near there to the W. between the highway aforesaid called Le Downerowe on the S. and demesne land of this manor now in the farm of Francis Shardelowe on the N. and abutting on the said demesne land to the E. and on the roadway (strat') at the end of the aforesaid highway on the W. and containing by estimation 1/2 rood, at the rent p.a. of 12d. as appears in the rolls of 28 Hen VIII, 26, 34, 36 and 43 Eliz., fol 11, the rental fig. 3.

~~f.2* Edward Unger the elder, gent, holds copyhold of the lord of this manor, in the right of Elizabeth his wife, a capital messuage or tenement, once a cottage, with the buildings, houses, barn, orchards gardens and the pigstye adjacent, with the appurtenances in Debenham, once Elizabeth Bond's, as they are situated together between the lane of the lord called Le Pryory Lane on the E. and the demesne land of this manor on the W. and abutting on copyhold land of this fee now in the tenure of William Motts to the N. and on the highway leading from the market of Debenham to Kenton called le Downerowe to the S. and containing altogether, by estimat' 1 1/2 ac. and rendering 3s. p.a., suit of court and other services as appears by the court rolls of 14 and 28 Hen VIII and 38 Eliz. and by the rental of 2 and 3 Phil. and M. fol. 5.~~

~~(in margin: 1710 now John Lomax. now John Davy 1710)~~

~~Richard Mutley, clerk holds copyhold of the Lord of this manor a garden formerly Thomas Maddock's, lying near (the last) to the W. between the highway aforesaid called le Downerowe on the S. and the demesne land of this manor now in farm to Francis Shardelowe on the N. and abutting on the said demesne land to the E. and on the street at the end of the said highway to the W., containing, by estimat.' 1/2 rood and rendering 12d. p.a. as appears by court rolls of 28 Hen VIII, 26, 34, 36 and 43 Eliz., fol. 11, Rental fig. 3.~~

~~(in margin: 1702 now (blank) 1710 Anne Motts widow, 1699)~~

f.2v.* Mark Catchpoll holds copyhold of this manor in the right of Elizabeth his wife, lately the relict of John Ide, a tenement near (the last) between the tenement and land of the lord of this manor in farm to the said Francis Shardelowe on the S. and the tenement now Anthony Ocle's alias Wrethoke's, gent., for William Stevens on the N. and abutting on the said land of the lord in part and the copyhold land of this manor in the tenure of William Motts in part to the E. and on the said street called le Downerowe to the W. and containing, with the garden by estimat' 1 rood and rendering 3s. 4d. p.a., suit of court and other services, as appears by court rolls of 30 Eliz., 12 and 14 Jas. and by the rental of 2 Eliz. fig. 55.
(in margin: 1702 now (blank) 1710 James Ling)

Anthony Ocle alias Wrethoke, gent., holds copyhold of the lord of this manor a tenement with a small garden lying next (to the last) to the N. between the tenement last described on the S. and the tenement and land of the said Wm. Motts on the N. and abutting on the tenement and land of the said Mark Catchpoll to the E. and on the street aforesaid to the W., rendering 2s. 2d. p.a. as appears by court rolls of 1 Mary 13, 19, 21 and 25 Eliz., 14 and 18 James fol. 2 Rental fig. 3 and by the rental of 2 Eliz. fig. 52
(in margin: 1702 now (blank) 1710 John Ling 1703)

f.3* William Motts holds copyhold of the lord of this manor, next (to the last) to the N. a capital messuage once a cottage now called le Bruhouse, formerly Barnaby Gibson's, with the houses, built there, buildings, garden, orchard and pightle lying adjacent, between the tenement last preceding in part, land of the lord in farm to the said Francis Shardelowe in part, and the messuage and land of the said Edward Unger in part on the S. and the tenement and land, copyhold of this fee in the tenure of Dorothy Daldy on the N. and abutting on the lane aforesaid called le Pryory Lane to the E. and on the said street to the W. and containing, altogether, by estimat', 1 ac. 3 roods and rendering 4s. 6d. p.a., suit of court and c. as appears by court rolls of 26 and 37 Hen. VIII, 1 Mary, 4 and 5 Phil. and M., 27 Eliz., 12 James and by the rental of 2 and 3 Phil. and M. fol. 4 fig. 2 and by the rental of 2 Eliz. fig. 17.
(in margin: 1702 Edmund Motts)

Dorothy Daldy, widow, holds next (to the last) to the N., by copyhold of the lord of this manor a messuage or tenement once called Gages with the buildings, garden and orchards, with a piece of land in le Hitherdowne there, formerly Agnes Skargate's, lying together between the messuage and land last preceding on the S. and the tenement and garden of Charles Assey lately Martha f.3v. Tovell in part and the copyhold land of this fee in the tenure of *Nicholas Sherman called le Downe, in part, on the N. and abutting on the said lane called le Pryors Lane to the E. and on the garden aforesaid of Charles Assey, in part, the garden of William List in part and the said street in part to the W. and containing altogether by estimation 1 ac. 3 rood and rendering 4s. 2d. p.a., suit of court and c. as appears by court rolls of 16 Hen. VIII, 4 and 5 Phil. and Mary, 5, 14, 39, 43 Eliz. and by the rental of 2 and 3 Phil. and Mary fol. 18 fig. 2.
(in margin 1702 now (blank) 1710 James Hart, 2s. 0d.; 1710 James Ling 1s. 4d., 1710 Sarah Walton, widow, by favour of the lord, but admitted 10d.: total 4s. 2d.)

Charles Assey holds copyhold of the lord of this manor next (to the last) to the N., a tenement formerly a cottage with the garden with the appurtenances once Bradkers afterwards Bucks, lately Robert Ashwell's, situated between the messuage last preceding on the S. and the tenement and land called Barkers next following on the N. and abutting on the orchard of the said Dorothy Daldy to the E. and on the said street called le Downerowe to the W. and containing by estimation 1 rood, rendering 10d. p.a. as appears by court rolls for 34 Hen. VIII, 38 Eliz. and 12 James and by the rental of 2 and 3 Phil and Mary fol. 11 fig. 4.

(in margin: now Lydia Golding; 1702, now (blank) 1710 Simon Jeffreys)

f.4* William List holds there, next (to the last) to the N. of the lord of this manor a copyhold tenement formerly a cottage called Barkers with the gardens attached, formerly James Bardwell's, once John Turbald's, lying between the tenement last described on the S. and the tenement and land of this manor in the copyhold tenure of Elizabeth Lorde on the N., and abutting on the orchard of the said Dorothy Daldy in part and le Hitherdowne in part to the E. and on the street aforesaid, called Downerowe to the W., containing, by estimation 1 rood and rendering 10d. p.a., suit of court and c., as appears by court rolls of 19 Hen. VIII, 1 Edw. VI, 1 and 13 Eliz. and by the rental of 2 and 3 Phil. and Mary fol. 12 fig. 1 and the rental of 2 Eliz. fig. 53.
(in margin: 1702 now (blank) 1710 Mary Wood, widow)

Elizabeth Lorde, widow, holds copyhold next (to the last) to the N. of the lord of this manor a tenement with garden adjacent formerly Robert Brewster's, lately Robert Reade's, lying between the tenement last described on the S. and the tenement, copyhold of this fee, formerly Christopher Shepe's now George Phillip's on the N. and abutting on le Hitherdowne to the E. and on the said street to the W. and containing by estimation 1 rood and rendering 12d. p.a. as appears by court roll of 38 and 39 Eliz. and 1 James.
(in margin: now W. Daldy; now Isaac Fayerweather; 1702 now (blank); 1710 Nathaniel Thurston 1707 at 7d. 1714 Wm. Faireweather 5d.)

f.4v* George Phillips holds copyhold of the lord of this manor a tenement lying next (to the last) to the N. between the tenement last described on the S. and the copyhold cottage of this fee now in the tenure of Richard Bond on the N. and abutting on the tenement last described and containing by estimation 12 perches and rendering 6d. p.a. as appears by court rolls of 40 and 42 Eliz.
(in margin: now John Phillips; 1702 now (blank) 1710 Mary Nun 2d; 1710 Giles Butcher 1d., 1710 John Smith 2d., 1710 Mary Smith 1d. (total) 6d.)

Richard Bonde holds there next (to the last) to the N. of the lord of this manor a cottage with garden adjacent, lying between the tenement last described on the S. and the tenement next described on the N. and abutting on le Hitherdowne aforesaid to the E. and on the said street to the W. and rendering 2d. p.a. as appears by court rolls of 4 Hen VIII, 4 Jas. and by the rental of 2 Eliz., fig. 7.
(in margin: now Walter Harvy; not Agnes Beamond; 1702 now (blank); 1710 Eliz. Worlige, widow)

Roger Lake holds copyhold of the lord of this manor there next (to the last) to the N., 2 parts of a cottage or tenement once called Colmans with 2 small gardens formerly Thomas Wheymond's situated between the cottage last described on the S. and another part of the same tenement on the N. and abutting on le Hitherdowne aforesaid to the E. and on the said street to the W. and rendering 5d. p.a., suit of court and c., as appears by court rolls of 40 f.5 Eliz., 2 and 16*Jas. and by the rental of 2 and 3 Phil. and Mary f.11 fig. 2.
(in margin 1702 now (blank) 1710 Thomas Clark, inf., 1703)

Thomas Sharman holds, next to the N. copyhold of the lord of this manor, a third part of the aforesaid tenement called Colmans, viz. the N. part of the same and abutting as said in the two entries preceding this, rendering 3d. p.a., suit of court and c.
(in margin 1702 now (blank); Nicholas Sharman, the elder; 1710 Thomas Abetts - 1d., 1710 Paupers of Debenham 3d.)

Robert Whaymond holds copyhold of the lord of this manor next to the N. a cottage with the garden adjacent, formerly parcel of the tenement Colmans, lately Thomas Whaymond's, situated between the tenement last described on the S. and the tenement of Robert List on the N. and abutting on le Netherdowne to the E. and on the aforesaid street to the W. rendering 4d. p.a. as appears by court rolls of 40, 42 Eliz. and 18 Jas. fol.11 Rental fig. 2.
(in margin: 1710 William Cracknell 2d.; 1710 William Sherman in the right of his wife, 2d. (total) 4d.; now Daniel Whaymonds; 1702 now (blank))

Robert List holds copyhold there, next to the N., of the lord of this manor, the S. part of a cottage or tenement formerly called Hunts and the mediety of a well with the adjacent garden, lately John Smyth's and before that Barnaby Barker's, divided from the other part of the same, between the cottage next described on the S. and the remainder of the same tenement on the S., and abutting on le * Netherdowne to the E. and on the aforesaid street to the W., rendering 9d. p.a., as appears by court rolls of 34, 36 and 41 Eliz. and 12 Jas. (in margin 1702 now (blank), 1710 Robert Murton 1697)

Robert Jackson holds there, next to the N., copyhold of the lord of this manor, part of the same tenement Hunts with the small garden adjacent to it, situated between 2 other parts of the same and abutting as the last entry, rendering 8d. p.a. as appears by court rolls 38 (omitted - ? Eliz.), 8 and 13 Jas. (in margin: now John Aldrich now Thomas Pack; 1710 now James Chilvers; now Chilvers Ja. 1712)

Elizabeth Utting holds there, next to the N., copyhold of the lord of this manor, another part of the same tenement Hunts, being a distinct house in itself, with the small garden adjacent, abutting as the last described part, rendering 9d. p.a., as appears by court rolls of 3, 10 and 14 Jas. (in margin: now Thomas Sherman; now Re. Walton the elder; 1702 now (blank); 1710 Sarah Walton, widow, by favour of the lord but not admitted).

John Smyth, "joyner", holds copyhold of the lord of this manor, in the right of Anne his wife, lately the daughter of Rose Stamford, a copyhold cottage now tenement with garden and orchard adjacent, formerly Lawrence Mayhew's, lying together between the tenement last described on the S. and another tenement of the same John Smith on the N. and abutting as the tenement last described, * rendering 16d. p.a. as appears by court rolls of 13, 27 and 38 Eliz. (in margin: now Nicholas Smyth; 1702 now (blank); 1710 Robert Bucknam 8d., 1710 Margery Karsy, widow 1s. Od.; 1710 Thomas Garwood in the right of his wife 8d.; 1710 Thomas Wills 1s. Od. (total) 3s. 4d.)

The same (John Smyth) holds next to the N. a copyhold cottage now tenement formerly John Barker's, lying between the tenement next described on the S. and the messuage and land of Nicholas Sherman on the N. and abutting as the tenement last described, rendering 2s. p.a., as appears by court rolls of 2 and 3 Phil. and Mary and 13 Eliz. (in margin: now Anne Smyth; now Nicholas Sherman; 1702 now (blank); 1710 see this rent with the preceding (entry)).

Nicholas Sherman holds next (to the last), copyhold of the lord of this manor, an enclosure of meadow and pasture called le Downe now divided into 2 parts lying together between the orchard of the said Nicholas in part and the copyhold land of the said Nicholas, of this fee, called le Little Downe, in part on the N. and the copyhold land of Dorothy Daldy, of this fee, on the S. and abutting on the lord's lane called le Pryors Lane to the E. and on the site of divers tenements copyhold of this fee to the W. and containing, by estimation, 7 ac. and rendering for it, with the piece next following, 8s. p.a., suit of court and c. as appears by court rolls of 26 and 33 Hen VIII, 2 and 3 Phil. and Mary and by court rolls of 30 and 33 Eliz. and by the rental of 2 and 3 Phil. and Mary fol. 11 fig. 2. (in margin: 4 ac. parcel of le Downe 3s. 8d. 3 ac. 2s. 4d.; 2 ac. next - 2s. (total) 8s. 1702 now (blank); 1710 Margery Nunn 3s. 8d.; 1710 William Dove 2s. 3d.; 1711 Thomas Sharman 2s. Od.)

f.6v* The same (Nicholas Sherman) holds there, next to the N., a piece of copyhold land called le Little Downe, lying between the enclosure last described on the ~~N.~~ and copyhold land of the manor of Scotnetts called Wygenalls on the N. and abutting on the site of the tenement of the same Nicholas in which he now lives to the W. and on the said lane called Pryors Lane to the E. and containing by estimation 2 ac. and rendering as included in the preceding inclosure (in margin: 1710 in the preceding rent: Thomas Sharman; 1711 Ann Sharman 1710)

George Phillips holds nearby there, next to the E., copyhold of the lord of this manor, an enclosure of pasture called Overdowne Close alias Nightclose, containing by estimation, 11 ac., lying between the close of pasture called Wygenalls copyhold of the fee, of the manor of Scotnetts on the S. and copyhold land of John Barker called Blodfeld on the N. and abutting on the said close called Wygenalls in part and the land of the said John Barker in part to the W. and on the said lane called Pryors Lane to the E. and rendering 10s. p.a., suit of court and other services, as appears by court rolls of 16 Hen VIII, 15 - 26 and 36 Eliz. and by the rental of 2 and 3 Phil. and Mary fol 9 - fig. 2.

(in margin: now Isaac Phillips; 1702 now (blank); 1710 John Simpson, infant, 1703)

f.7* John Barker holds next to the E., of the lord of this manor, an enclosure of copyhold pasture called Caymes, in Debenham, once Nicholas Jeffery's, between the land of the said John Barker on the S. and copyhold land of this same John on the N. and abutting on Overdowne to the E. and on the common of the lord belonging to his manor of Scotnetts called Blodfeld Wey to the W. and containing, by estimation 3 ac. and rendering 2s. p.a. as appears by court rolls of 13 Hen. VIII 2 and 3 Phil. and Mary, 19 Eliz. and 12 Jas. and by the rental of 2 and 3 Phil. and Mary fol. 14 fig. 1.

(in margin: 1702 now John Clodd; 1710 Jane Clodd, infant. Note Lord's common)

Thomas Barker holds copyhold of the lord of this manor a piece of pasture lying nearby, between the free land of Robert Tovell called le Harrowe on the S. and a piece of land of John Barker in part and the land called Little Blodfeld in part, on the N. and abutting on the land of the same John Barker to the W. and on Pryors Lane in part and the land of Nicholas Garnies Esq., in part, to the E. and containing, by estimation, 3 ac. and rendering for it 12d. p.a. and suit of court and c., as appears by court rolls of 27 Eliz. and 12 Jas. and by the rental of 2 and 3 Phil. and Mary fo. 2 fig. 2.

(in margin: 1710 now John Simpson, in f. 1697)

f.7v.* Nicholas Sherman holds copyhold of the lord of this manor, a close of pasture called Kytchmans Close alias Hunts formerly John Sherman's, lying opposite the capital message of the said Nicholas in which he now lives (the lord's way belonging to his manor of Scotnetts lying between, called Blodfeld grene) between the lord's common called Blodfeld Greneway leading from Debenham to Aspall on the E. and the close of John Bardwell called Melfeld on the W. and abutting on the land of Sackvill's fee to the N. and on the lord's green called Nunes Grene to the S. and containing, by estimation, 6 ac., and rendering 8s. 10d. p.a., 2 hens and a cock, as appears by court rolls of 44 Eliz and 2 and 6 Jas. fol. 9, Rental fig. 4.

(in margin: 1702 now (blank); 1710 Francis Sherman 1695, Note: the lord's common (twice)).

John List holds copyhold of the lord of this manor a piece of land containing, by estimation, a rood, with a cottage and another small house built upon it, situated in the close called Blodhall Close, between the land of Richard Girling on the E. and the cottage and land of Walter Harvy of the Scottenhaugh fee on the E. and abutting on the highway leading from Debenham to Aspall to the N. and on the common of the lord's fee of Scotnetts called Blodhallway, * to the S. and rendering 3d. p.a. as appears by court roll 42, 43 and 44 Eliz. and 4 Jas.

f.8

(in margin: now Margaret Woode; 1710 now John Allen the elder; 1713 John Allen the younger. The common again).

John Webber holds copyhold of the lord of this manor an "officinam cum cubiculis", in English, a shop with the chambers over it, parcel of the capital message once Robert Thrower's, clerk, afterwards William Thwayts Esq, lately William Harrison situated either the N. or N. E. part of the capital message next to les Stalls in Debenham and rendering 2s. p.a., suit of court and c., as appears by court rolls of 13, 17, 18 and 22 Hen. VIII, 2, 44 Eliz. and 7 Jas. and by the rental of 2 and 3 Phil. and Mary fo. 15 fig. 3.

(in margin: now John Girlyng; now John Smith; 1702 now (blank); 1710 Robert Allfounder malster 1709)

Dobenham Butley (contd.)

f.8v

Nicholas Ball, gent., holds copyhold of the lord of this manor, parcel of a close called le Camping Close, alias le Dove house Close formerly James Chrispe, in Debenham, now planted as an orchard, lying between the capital messuage of the same Nicholas Bell on the W. and the lane there called le Pryors Lane on the E. and abutting on le Brooke there to the N. and the curtilage and another part of the same close called le Camping close in the copyhold tenure of James *Harrison to the S. and containing by estimation $1\frac{1}{2}$ ac. and rendering 3s. 2d. p.a. as appears by court rolls of 27 and 41 Eliz. and 2 Jas. and by the rental of 2 and 3 Phil. and Mary fo. 6 fig. 3,
 (in margin: now Jo. Bell; 1702 now Henry Smith, gent., 1710 Thomas Rodbard, Esq., 1707)

James Harison holds copyhold of the lord of this manor a piece of land, parcel of the close called Dovehouse Close alias le Camping Close, containing by estimation $\frac{1}{2}$ ac. and $\frac{1}{2}$ rood, divided from the other part of the same by a live hedge now used for an orchard and a "le entry" or outlet, lying between the orchard and the pightle called le Camping Close in the copyhold tenure of the said Nicholas Bell on the N. and another parcel of the same close now in the copyhold tenure of Francis Hunting lately John Harrison, called le Outlet, on the S. and abutting on the land, called le Pryors Lane to the E. and on the curtilage, copyhold of this fee adjacent to the capital messuage of this same James to the W. and rendering 14d. p.a. as appears by court rolls of 30 and 44 Eliz. and 18 Jas. and by the rental of 2 and 3 Phil. and Mary fol. 6 fig. 3
 (in margin: 1710 Sara Davie, widow, now Henry Harrison. 1702 now (blank))

f.9*

The same (James Harison) holds copyhold of the lord of this manor, a curtilage, lying next between the capital messuage of this same James of the fee of Blodhall once called Goldphynche formerly Gurdons alias Jewyes, on the W., and the piece last described on the E., rendering 12d. p.a. as appears by court rolls of 30 and 43 Eliz. and 18 Jas. and by the rental fo. 6 fig. 3.
 (in margin: 1710 Sara Davie, widow; now Henry Harrison; 1702 now (blank)).

Francis Huntynge holds there, copyhold of the lord of this manor, next to the S. a parcel of the said close called le Dovehouse Close with the easement to a watering place (cum esiamto unius aquar') now used for a curtilage and an outlet, and containing by estimation $1\frac{1}{2}$ roods, parcel of an acre lately John Harrison's and lying between the said curtilage and the orchard of James Harrison on the N. and Debenham churchyard in part and the copyhold orchard now John Gowyn's of this fee, formerly Robert Runkettle's, in part, on the S. and abutting on the site of his free messuage of the fee of Bloodhall called le Buck to the W. and on the lane called le Pryors Lane to the E., and rendering 2s. p.a. as appears by court rolls of 37 Eliz. and 9 Jas.
 (in margin. now Robert Girlyng; now John Cock; now John Easterson; 1702 now (blank); 1710 Thomas Dade, smith; 1713 Ro. Allfounder).

f.9v*

John Gowen holds copyhold of the lord of this manor, next to the S., a tenement formerly a cottage once Robert Chester's, formerly in the tenure of John Bobbett, lately Thomas Gowen, with the garden, curtilage, orchard adjacent, lying between the last parcel of the close called le Duffehowse on the N. and the lord's green of the fee of Scotnetts called le Crosse Grene in part and the lord's lane there leading from the said green to Halfyns Bridge in part on the S. and abutting on the churchyard of Debenham church to the E. and on the lord's lane called le Pryors Lane to the W. and containing by estimation 1 ac. and rendering 2s. 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ d. p.a. as appears by court rolls of 13, and 16 Hen. VIII and 5 and 6 Phil. and Mary, 21, 42 - 43 and 44 Eliz. fol. 10 Rental fig. 4.
 (in margin: 1702 now (blank); 1710 Jane Kettle 1690; the lord's common).

Anthony Wrethoke, gent, holds copyhold of the lord of this manor a messuage or tenement, newly built, once called Cokes Cottage, with the stable for the same, newly built and with the curtilage and garden, lying between the tenement of John Gowen last described on the E. and the entrance from the green called le Crosse Grene to Debenham church in part and the churchyard there, in part, on * the W. and abutting on the churchyard to the N. and on the said green to the S. and rendering 8d. p.a. as appears by court rolls of 16 Hen. VIII, 35 Eliz., 11 and 18 Jas., fol. 2 rental fig. 1.

(in margin: 1710 Thomas Tillet in the right of his wife 1703)

Thomas Barker holds there, next to the W. (the entry to Debenham church lying between) a copyhold tenement with the smiths shop (officina ferraria) and garden adjacent, formerly Nicholas Sparhawk's, lying between the said entry to the church on the E. and the copyhold tenement. William Edgar, of this fee, on the W. and abutting on the churchyard to the W. and on Crosse Grene to the S. and rendering 7d. p.a. as appears by court rolls of 38 Eliz., 5, 7, 15, and 16 Jas. and by the rental of 24 Eliz.
(in margin: 1702 now (blank); 1710 John Barker 1696)

The same (Thomas Barker) holds, opposite the smith's shop, a le Traverse, and renders 1d. p.a. as appears by court rolls of 38 Eliz., 5, 7, 15 and 16 Jas.
(in margin: as above)

f.10v William Edgar holds there, next to the W., the mediety of a tenement formerly John Glamfeld's with the adjacent garden, divided from the other mediety of the same, lying between the tenement last described on the E. and the street *there on the W. and abutting on the other mediety of the same tenement now in the copyhold tenure of Sarah Glamfeld, widow, to the N. and on le Crosse Grene to the S. and rendering 4d. p.a. as appears by court rolls for 13, 20 and 33 Hen. VIII, 1, 5, 7, 24, 30 and 42 Eliz., 1, 12 and 14 Jas., fol. 10 rental fig. 3.
(in margin: now John Dunckon; 1702 now (blank) 1710 Thomas Howlett 1695 2½d.; 1710 Martha Leader 1695 1½d.)

Sara Glamfeld holds copyhold of the lord of this manor, the other mediety of the said tenement formerly John Glamfeld's with the adjacent garden divided from the other part, lying between the said tenement of William Edgar last described on the S. and the cottage of John Gowen next described on the N. and abutting on the churchyard to the E. and on the market or high street to the W. and rendering 3d. p.a.; fol. 10. Rental fig. 3.
(in margin: 1702 now (blank) 1710 William Banister 1701)

John Gowen holds copyhold of the lord of this manor a cottage with the shop and garden belonging to it, lying next to the N. between the tenement of Sara Glamfeld last described on the S. and the cottage or tenement of Margaret Curdy, widow, on the E. (sic) and abutting on the churchyard to the E. and on the market to the W. and rendering 9d. p.a. as appears in fol. 13 of the rental fig. 3.
(in margin: 1702 now (blank); 1710 Anna Bardwell, widow; 1713 Robert Bardwell)

f.11 *Margaret Curdy, widow, holds next to the N. of the lord of this manor a copyhold tenement with 2 dwelling houses (domibus mancipial) belonging to it, lying between the cottage last described on the S. and the entrance at le Stone-style into the churchyard on the N., abutting on the churchyard to the E. and on the market to the W. and rendering 9d. p.a. as appears by court rolls 7 Hen. VIII, 3 and 4 Phil. and Mary, 39 Eliz., fol. 13 rental fig. 2.
(in margin. 1702 now (blank); 1710 Samuel Banister 1691 4d., 1703 Christopher Smith 1702 5d. (total) 9d.)

The towns folk of Debenham hold of the lord of this manor a messuage in Debenham called le Almeshowse, containing in it, 4 separate dwellings for the poor to be housed (hospit and') there, the N. end of which contains 2 dwellings is held freely of the lord by deed and the remainder of the messuage, containing 80 feet is held of the lord at will by annual rent of 12d. and suit of court and payment to the lord at the death of each tenant who (?) jointly took the premises from the lord, 2 capons as appears by court roll 34 Eliz. fol. 11 rental fig. 1.
(in margin 1702 now: the town of Debenham)

f.11v *Anthony Wrethoke, gent., holds copyhold of the lord of this manor a close of pasture called Melclose, in Debenham, lying between the demesne land of the lord called Melfeld on the S. and the pightle formerly Lionel Fosdick's now the aforesaid Anthony's on the N. and abutting on le Melclose of the lord to the E. and on the highway called Poolehill Wey to the W. and containing by estimation $3\frac{1}{2}$ ac. and rendering 3s. 6d. p.a. as appears by court rolls of 34 Eliz., 14, 15 and 18 Jas. fo. 2 Rental fig. 4.
(in margin: 1710 Fenhias (sic) Lock 1697)

Edward Major, gent. holds copyhold of the lord of this manor a piece of land containing by estimation 2 ac. once in the farm of Thomas Buck formerly of Thomas Bond, in Debenham, lying in le Melfeld alias Poolshills, between the land of Kenton manor in the same enclosure on both sides and abutting on the common way leading from Debenham to Thorpe to the S. and on the way running from Debenham to Crows Hall to the N. and rendering 2s. p.a., as appears by court rolls of 28 Hen. VIII, 28, 33 Eliz. 8, 9 and 10 Jas. fol. 4 fig. 1 Rental fig. 16 Rental of 2 Eliz.
(in margin: now Thomas Hayes, gent.; 1702 now; 1710 Simon Jeffreys of Bedford.)

f.12 *Thomas Pecke holds copyhold of the lord of this manor a piece of meadow containing by estimation $1\frac{1}{2}$ ac. in Debenham lying between the highway leading from Debenham to Thorpe on the N. and the riverbank there on the S. and abutting on the lord's meadow in the occupation of Robert Ballard to the W. and on the meadow of Richard Sponer to the E. and rendering 4s. p.a. as appears by court rolls of 8 Hen. VIII, 4 and 5 Phil. and Mary 41 Eliz. and 3 Jas. and by the rental of 2 and 3 Phil. and Mary fo. 13. fig. 3
(in margin: now Grace Peake, 1702 now (blank) 1710 William Turpetine in the right of his wife, viz. Anne Smith, 1695; Robert Allfounder 1711.)

James Phillips holds copyhold of the lord of this manor 2 pieces of meadow containing together, by estimation, 3 roods, in Debenham, of which the 1st contains by estimation 1 rood lying between the meadow late of Nicholas Garnies, Esq., on the E. and the land late Ralph Cheeke's on the E. and abutting on the lane called Fryors Lane to the S. The 2nd piece containing by estimation $\frac{1}{2}$ ac., lying between the meadow of the aforesaid Nicholas Garnies on the E. and W. and abutting on the common riverbank to the S. and on the way aforesaid called Fryors Lane, leading from Debenham to Creetingham to the S. and rendering 3s. p.a. as appears by court rolls 41-45 Eliz., 16 Jas. fol. 19, Rental fig. 3.
(in margin: now James Phillips; 1710 now the town of Ipswich, by fealty? (fiduciarios))

f.12v *George Phillips holds by copyhold of the lord of this manor, a meadow containing by estimation $2\frac{1}{2}$ ac. lying nearby (the last) to the E. between the meadow called Kenton Hall Meadow on the W. and the copyhold meadow of George Tovell of Corws Hall fee on the E. and abutting on the lane called Thorpe Lane to the N. and on the river bank to the S. and rendering 6s. p.a. and suit of court as appears by court rolls of 3 and 4 Phil. and Mary, 35 Eliz. fol. 15 Rental fig. 5
(in margin: now Nicholas Phillips; 1710 now the town of Ipswich by fealty (Fiduciarios))

Thomasine Woode, widow, holds copyhold of the lord of this manor a meadow containing by estimation 1 ac. 1 rood in Debenham lying between the common river on the N. and the common way leading from Debenham to Framsdon on the S. and abutting on the meadow of Richard Sponer to the E. and on the meadow of James Harrison to the W. and rendering as shown afterwards (in margin f.18) with the tenement and other land of the same Thomasine as appears by court rolls of 11 Hen. VIII 4 and 5 Phil. and Mary and 10 Jas. and by the rental of 2 and 3 Phil. and Mary fol. 13 fig. 3.
(in margin: now James Woode; 1702 now (blank), 1710 Samuel Moyses)

f.13* Edward Major, gent., holds copyhold of the lord of this manor a piece of enclosed land lying at Cellyscroft in Winston containing by estimation 3 ac. between the land of George Phillips of Bloodhall fee called Tylekell Pightle on the N. and the copyhold land of this manor in the tenure of George Tovell in part and the land of Winston fee in his tenure in part on the S. and abutting on the highway leading from Debenham to Winston to the W. and on the land of this fee next described to the E. and rendering 3s. 2d. p.a. as appears by court rolls of 1 Mary, 5-12, 28, 33 Eliz. 8, 9, 10 James and by the rental of 2 and 3 Phil. and Mary fo. 5 fig. 1.
(in margin: now Thomas Hayes gent., 1702 now (blank), 1710 Mary Bransby and Sayer, 1688)

f.13v The same (Edward Major) holds nearby to the E. of the lord of this manor an enclosure of meadow and pasture, copyhold, called Lyttle Mansfeld now divided in 3 parts, containing altogether by estimation 16 ac., more or less in Winston between the piece last described in part, copyhold land of this fee in the tenure of George Tovell in part and the copyhold of this fee in the tenure of the said Edward Major in part (by which the way called Collyers Wey leading from Debenham to Winston goes) on the W. and the land of the same Edward Major in part and the land of the Prior of Ely's fee in part, on the E. and abutting on the land of the said Prior to the S. and the *highway leading from Debenham to Framsdon to the N. and rendering 13s. 4d. p.a. as appears by court rolls of 33 Hen VIII, 3 and 4 Phil. and Mary, 25 Eliz., 9 and 10 James, fol. 1 rental fig. 3.
(in margin: now Thomas Hayes, gent.; 1702 now (blank); 1710 Mary Bransby and Sayer 1688)

The same (Edward Major) holds copyhold of the lord of this manor a piece of land lately Richard Jefferyes alias Sponer, lying next(to the last) to the W. in Overtofts between land of Edward himself on the E. and W. and abutting on the piece next described to the N. and on land of the Vicarage of Winston in part and on land of the Prior of Ely in part, to the S., containing by estimation $1\frac{1}{2}$ roods and rendering 2d. p.a. as appears by court rolls of 27 Eliz. and 16 Jas. (in margin: now Thomas Hayes, gent.; 1702 now (blank) 1710 Mary Bransby and Sayer 1688)

f.14 George Tovell holds there, next to the N., 3 pieces of copyhold land formerly Simon Tovell's in Wynstonfeld containing altogether, by estimation 4 ac.; of which 2 pieces lie together between the aforesaid enclosure of this fee called Littlemansfeld on the E. and the piece next described in part and the piece of land of the Prior of Ely in part on the W. and abutting on the last piece described in part and land of Edward Major in part to the S. and on land of this fee in the tenure of the same Edward Major to the N. and containing altogether by estimation, 2 ac. The Third piece of the 3 * pieces lying next to the W. between land of the Prior of Ely on both sides and abutting on the highway leading from Debenham to the green called Wynston Grene to the W. and containing by estimation 2 ac. and rendering for the said 3 pieces 2s. p.a. as appears by court rolls of 27, and 33 Eliz. and 19 Jas.
(in the margin: 1702 now; Robert Pett and his wife; 1710 Robert Pett and his wife)

Edward Major, gent., holds copyhold of the lord of this manor 2 ac. of land lately Richard Jefferyes alias Sponer's in Winston, lying between land of the Prior of Ely on the E. and land of the same Richard on the W. and abutting on the common way leading from Debenham to Ipswich to the N. and on land of Winston vicarage in part and land of the said Richard in part to the S. and rendering 10d. p.a. and suit of court, as appears by court rolls 1 Mary, 2 and 3 Phil. and Mary, 6, 17, Eliz. and 16 Jas.
(in margin: now Thomas Hayes, gent.; 1702 now (blank); 1710 Mary Bransby and Sayer 1688)

f.14v Simon Tovell holds copyhold of the lord of this manor a tenement lately John Cully's with the orchard and garden adjoining, situated between the tenement and land of John Fuller on the S. and the tenement and land of John Burrowe on the N. and abutting on the land of Richard * Jefferyes alias Sponer to to the W. and on the street there going to the market of Debenham to the E. and containing by estimation 1 rood and rendering 2s. as appears by court rolls of 4 and 14 Jas.

(in margin: now John Warde; now William Batts; 1702 now (blank) 1710 Mary Howlett 1695 1s. 2d. Turpen in the right of his wife 1695 0s. 10d.)

Robert Tovell holds copyhold of the lord of this manor a piece of enclosed land containing by estimation, $3\frac{1}{2}$ ac. in Debenham, once George Fen's, Clerk, formerly George Harrison's, lying between the messuage of Debenham vicarage on the E. and copyhold land of Aspoll Hall on the W. and abutting on the lord's common of Scotnetts fee called Heyes way to the S. and on free land of the same Robert to the N. rendering 4s. 8d. p.a. as appears by court rolls of 16 Hen. VIII. 13 and 44 Eliz. and 19 Jas. and by the rental fol. 15 fig. 1
(in margin 1702 now (blank); Frances Dove, widow; 1707 Nicholas Chandler, John Alefounder in the right of his wife. The lord's common)

f.15 Thomas Spilsby holds copyhold of the lord of this manor a piece of land called Lent Pece formerly John Petchy's, in Debenham, lying between and formerly Lawrence Fideon's called Bur Maydens of Crows Hall fee now the said Thomas Spilsby's on the E. or N.E. and land of the Prior of * Ely in the tenure of Allan Catchpoll in the right of his wife on the S.W. and abutting on land formerly John Thresher's now Allan Catchpoll's to the S.E. and on the common way or green of the lord belonging to his manor of Scotnetts called Heyesway to the N.W. and containing by estimation 2 ac. and rendering 20d. p.a. and suit of court, as appears by court rolls of 36 Eliz. and 2 Jas.
(in margin. 1702 Now (blank); 1710 Charles Garnys, gent. 1706. The lord's common)

Thomas Nichols holds copyhold of the lord of this manor a piece of land or pasture containing by estimation 1 rood, more or less lying in Kenton Close between the land of Monks Soham rectory on the S. or S.E. and land formerly Robert Garnies, Esq., now Nicholas Garnies' Esq., on the W. or N.W. and abutting on the highway leading from Eye to Earl Soham to the N. or N.E. and on land of the said Nicholas Garnies to the S. or S.W. and rendering 4d. p.a. as appears by court rolls of 36, 41 Eliz. and 7 Jas. now king.
(in margin: now John Tanen; 1702 now (blank))

f.15v* James Culham holds copyhold of the lord of this manor a piece of land formerly Geoffrey Howlett's in Kenton, containing by estimation 1 rood, now in the occupation of Edward Yellopp, lying between land formerly John Bertlott's now Thomas Bedingfeld's Esq., on the E. and land late John Howlett's now the said James', on the E. and abutting on the highway leading from Eye to Earl Soham to the N. or N.E. and on land of the said Thomas Bedingfeld to the S. or S.W. and rendering 4d. p.a. as appears by court rolls of 14 Hen. VIII, 4 and 28 Eliz. and 6 Jas. and by Rental of 2 and 3 Phil. and Mary fo. 3 fig. 4
(in margin: now () Morse; 1702 now It was seized. 1710 qu' who has it now)

f.16 Rubin Feveryere holds copyhold of the lord of this manor a piece of meadow or pasture called Kempes Medowe once John Stele's formerly Thomas Aldrich's lately Thomas Nicholls, lying between land of Suddon Hall on the E. and the highway leading from Eye to Earl Soham on the W. and abutting on another highway called Suddon Lane to the S. and on the meadow of Suddon Hall to the N. and containing by estimation $2\frac{1}{2}$ ac. and rendering 6s. 10d. p.a., * as appears by court rolls of 34 Hen. VIII - 36 and 41 Eliz. and 11 Jas., fol. 5 Rental fig. 2
(in margin: 1702: now Jane Clodd, widow. 1710 Thomas Clodd the younger 1704)

The same (Rubin Feveryere) holds there, opposite to the W. (the highway leading from Eye to Earl Soham lying between) a piece of land or meadow, one of 3 enclosures in Kenton, between a small piece of Suddon fee in the same close on the S.E. and land of Kenton rectory on the N.E., abutting on the highway to the E and land of Nicholas Garnies, Esq., to the W., containing by estimation 4 ac. and rendering 4s. 8d. p.a., suit of court as appears by court roll of 36 and 41 Eliz. 11 Jas., fo. 23 Rental fig. 2
(in margin: the said Jane Clodd; 1710 Thomas Clodd the younger 1704)

William Drane holds copyhold of the lord of this manor an enclosure of meadow and pasture now divided into 2 parts with a piece of meadow containing by estimation 2 ac. at the end of one of the said pieces, containing altogether by estimation $21\frac{1}{2}$ ac. 30 perches, once Robert Hastings lying together in Kenton, between the land of Suddon manor on the S. or S.E. and the meadow of Nicholas f.16v Garnies * Esq., in part and land of the said William Drane in part on the N. or N.W. and abutting on the highway leading from Eye to Earl Soham in part and the said meadow of the said Nicholas Garnies in part and the meadow of the said William Drane in part to the W. and land of Suddon fee to the E., rendering 16s. 8d. p.a. and suit of court as appears by court rolls of 14 Hen VIII, 30 Eliz., 7 Jas. and called, by the old extent of Rich II Pryors Close.
(in margin: 1710 now John Warren, gent. 1706)

The same (William Drane) holds copyhold of the lord of this manor a piece of meadow lying at the N. end of his close called Spyncks between William Drane's own land of Kenton fee on both sides and abutting on land of the said William Drane formerly Tookes to the W. and on his own land lately Richard Sparhawkes towards the E., containing by estimation 1 rood, the rent of this piece being put with the said William's land last recorded as appears by court roll and rental as above
(in margin: the said Warren 1706)

Robert Woode holds copyhold of the lord of this manor a piece of land lately John Aldrich's containing by estimation 3 roods in Kenton lying between land form- f.17 erly the Abbot of Bury St. Edmund's of Monk Soham fee in the tenure * of John Culham on the E. or N.E. and free land lately John Garnies' now the said Robert Woode's in the same close on the W. or S.W. and abutting on land formerly Robert Hastings' now the said Robert Woode's to the S. and on the meadow lately Thomas Bedingfeld's, Esq., now Philip Bedingfeld's Esq. called Kenton Medowe alias Flemyns Medowe to the N., rendering 8d. p.a. as it appears in court rolls of 5 and 6 Phil. and Mary, 34 Eliz., 8, 12, 14 Jas. and by the rental of 2 and 3 Phil. and Mary fo. 12 fog. 3.
(in margin: now George Woods; 1710 now Thomas Clodd the elder).

The same (Robert Woode) holds copyhold of the lord of this manor a piece of land, lying near (to the last?) to the S. or S.E., of Brokeholewell, between land of Kenton manor on the E. and land formerly in the tenure of John Spech in the same close, now Robert Woode on the W. and abutting on land lately Richard Calver's now John Flowerdewe's to the S. and on Brokeholewell to the N. and containing by estimation 3 roods and 12 perches, rendering 9d. p.a. as appears by court rolls of 34 Eliz. and 8, 12 and 14 Jas.
(in margin: now George Woode; 1710 the said Thomas Clodd the elder)

John Aldrich holds copyhold of the lord of this manor, near there, a piece of land of which the S. head is the meadow lying on * the N.W. of Brokeholewell next to the close called Howletts between land of Kenton Hall in the tenure of John Aldrich on the E. and land of the same John on the W. and abutting on land of Kenton manor by the well called Brokeholewell to the S. or S.E. and on land of the same manor to the N. and containing by estimation 1 ac. 3 roods 23 perches, rendering 21d. p.a. as appears by court rolls of 34 Eliz., 8, 12 and 14 Jas.
(in margin: now James Aldrich 1710 now John Harsant.)

Thomas Corbold, gent., holds copyhold of the lord of this manor his capital messuage called Bartlots once John Hubberd's formerly Robert Appleywayte's, containing by estimation 4 ac. 15 perches of land, parcel of 10 ware ac. in Debenham, lying between land of Bloodhall fee on the N. and the cottage and land of the lord called Haylocks on the S. and abutting on land of the manor of Bloodhall in part and land of the manor of Sackvills in part to the W. and on the lord's green belonging to his manor of Scotnetts called Blodfeld Grene to the E., rendering 3s., 2 hens and a cock and suit of court and c. as appears by court rolls of 18 and f.18 * 38 Eliz. and 11 Jas. and by the rental of 2 and 3 Phil. and Mary fol. 6 fig. 1
(in margin: 1710 now Robert Pett, draper and his wife; 1702 The lord's common)

James Harison holds copyhold of the lord of this manor, a close of meadow and pasture formerly Robert Gowen's called Oxeclose in Debenham containing by estimation 9 ac. lying opposite the gates or site of the manor, formerly the Priory of Butley's, now divided in 2 parts between the lord's private way leading from the site of the said manor on the N. and another of the lord's private ways next to Brode Medowe leading from Debenham church to the bridge called Aldens Bridge on the S. and abutting on the meadow of Thomas Peeke formerly John Blackhouse's, the elder, to the E. and another of the lord's ways called le Pryors Lane leading from Crose Grene to the bridge of the manor to the W. and rendering 20s. p.a., and suit of court, as appears by court rolls of 34, 43 Eliz. and 18 Jas. (in margin: now Anthony Wrethoke; 1702 now Susan the wife of John Dawling; 1710 John Davie 1703)

f.18v * Thomasin Woode, widow, holds copyhold of the lord of this manor a message or tenement formerly called Ponyards alias Penyards and the cottage with the curtilage containing $\frac{1}{2}$ rood and a curtilage lying above Brode Medowe Dytych lately Robert Sparham's and the parcel of land lying above Brode Medowe Gate containing in length 5 perches on one side and $3\frac{1}{2}$ perches on the other side and in width at one head 3 perches and at the other head 1 perch, situated together with the stable newly erected on parcel of the same between the way leading from Debenham church to the bridge called Aldens Bridge on the N. and the tenement of James Fuller on the S. and abutting on Brode Medowe Dytych to the E. and on the lord's green there called Crose Grene to the W., rendering, with the piece of meadow on f.12 of this book, 7s. 4d. p.a. parcel of the rent of 11s. 4d. as appears by court rolls 4 and 5 Phil. and Mary, 36, 41 Eliz. and 11 Jas. and by the rental of 2 and 3 Phil. and Mary fol. 13 fig. 3 (in margin: now James Woode; now John Woode; 1702 now (blank), 1710 Samuel Moyse.)

f.19 James Fuller holds copyhold of the lord of this manor, next to the S., a message or tenement with the cottage, orchard and garden formerly Andrew Conyngham's situated between the message last described on the N. and the tenement of George Savage and William Ownys on the S. and abutting on Brodmedowe Dytych to the E. and on the green called Crose Grene * to the W., rendering 10d. p.a. as appears by court rolls of 4 and 5 Phil. and Mary, 19 and 38 Eliz. and fol. 5 of the rental, fig. 3, Phil. and Mary. (in margin: 1702 now Thomas Lockwood 1710)

George Savage holds copyhold of the lord of this manor next there to the S., the onediety of a tenement lately John Savage's, viz. the N. part of the same, with the N. part of a garden belonging to it as it is now divided from the other part with hurdles (herciubus) or pales, lying between the tenement last described on the N. and the other mediety of the same tenement on the S., and abutting as the message or tenement last described, rendering 8d. p.a. by the apportionment of rent, as appears by court rolls of 16, 17, 26 Hen. VIII, 7 Edw. VI, 1 Mary, 39 Eliz., 15, 16 Jas., fol. 2 fig. 4 of the rental. (in margin: now John Leeder; now John Wilson; 1702 now (blank); 1710 William Cracknell in the right of his wife, late widow Willson.)

William Ownys holds copyhold of the lord of this manor the other mediety of the same tenement and garden, similarly divided from the other part, situated between the other part on the N. and another part formerly of the same tenement now in the copyhold tenure of Robert Barrett on the S. and abutting on the other mediety of the same tenement last described and rendering 10d. p.a. by the apportioned rent as appears by court rolls of 16 - 17 - 26 Hen. VIII, 7 Edw. VI, 1 Mary, 39 Eliz., 15 - 16 Jas., fol. 2 fig. 4 of rental (in margin: now John Leeder; now John Wilson; 1702 now (blank); 1710 now Thomas Willson.)

f.19v * Robert Barrett holds copyhold of the lord of this manor a tenement with the adjacent garden formerly parcel of the tenement last described situated between the tenement last described on the N. and the meadow of Edward Unger the elder, gent., called BrodeMedowe, on the S. and abutting the said meadow to the E. and on the green called le Crose Grene to the W. and rendering 12d. as appears by court roll of 16 Jas. and by the rental of 2 and 3 Phil. and Mary fol. 2 fig. 4 (in margin: now Glascock; now George Potter. 1702 now (blank); 1710 Anne Woods, widow 1702 William Wood.)

Edward Unger the elder, gent, holds copyhold of the lord of this manor a meadow called Brode Medowe now divided in the middle by a wild live hedge in Debenham, lying between divers tenements last described in part and the green called le Crosse Grene in part and the highway called Hertts Wey, leading from Debenham to Herts Bridge in part to the W. and the lords way of Crows Hall fee called Poolehill Wey and Poolehill Grene on the E. and abutting on the way leading from Debenham church to the bridge called Aldens Bridge to the N. and on the highway leading from the market of Debenham to Thorpe to the S. and rendering 26s. 8d. p.a. as appears by court rolls of 25 Hen. VIII, 1, 36, 44 Eliz. and 7 Jas. (footnote: 4. 2s. from Harrison; 4 1 from Gibson) (in margin: 1710 now Richard Sharman; 1701 The Lord's common)

f.20 * Anthony Wrethoke, gent, holds copyhold of the lord of this manor a piece of land formerly Robert Cheeke's, gent., in Debenham lying between the land called Salmons now George Phillips on one (side) and land lately Lionel Fosdick's now the said Anthony's on the other and abutting on the common way there called Camps Grene alias Bucks Grene to the N. and on the lord's land called Melfeld to the S. and containing by estimation 1 ac., rendering 20d. p.a. according to court rolls of 28 Eliz., 5 and 18 Jas., fol. 6 fig. 3 of the rental of 2 and 3 Phil. and Mary. (in margin: 1702 now Henry Gardiner; 1710 John Gardiner, infant, 1702)

Charles Gibson holds copyhold of the lord of this manor the site of a tenement, now wasted, called Calistons with the attached close, once Thomas Bond's lately Robert Lance's lying together between the lord's green called Campes Grene alias Bucks Grene on the S. or S.E. and copyhold land of this manor called Pyes-closes on the N. or N.W., abutting on copyhold land of Crows Hall fee now in the tenure of Thomas Pecke to the W. and on land of George Philips in part and the close next described in part to the E. or N.E. and containing together, by estimation 3 ac. and rendering 3s. 2d. p.a. as appears by court rolls of 8, 12, 20, 24, 29, 33, 36, 38, 45 Eliz. (in margin: now James Phillips; 1710 Ipswich Trustees; the lord's common; the town of Ipswich; 1702 the town of Ipswich)

f.20v * The same (Charles Gibson) holds, next to the N., copyhold of the lord of this manor an enclosure, parcel of 2 enclosures called Pyescloses alias Prests Closes with the private way adjacent to the enclosure, the enclosure lying between land of Thomas Peeke on the W. or S.W. and land of the same Charles of Kenton fee in part and the other close or enclosure of the 2 Clerks (Clericorum) called Pyes-closes in part on the E. or N.E. and abutting on the site and close last described to the S. and on land of the lord of this manor in part and the close next described in part to the N; and the said way extends from the way called le Pryors Wey next to Oxclose to the said close between land of the lord of this manor on one (side) and the said land of Thomas Peeke on the other, containing by estimation 9 ac. and assessed for rent with the following pieces. (in margin: John Godbold, 1710 now John Godbold, infant)

The same (Charles Gibson) holds copyhold of the lord of this manor, next to the last described close, the other enclosure of the aforesaid enclosures lying in strips (in modo lirae) with the small piece at the N. end of the last close, with the well in it, the close and the piece together, lying between land of the same Charles of Kenton fee in part, the close last described in part and land of the lord of this manor in part, on the S.W. and land of the lord of this manor in part on the S.W. and land of Nicholas Phillip called Curtyes Close on the N.E. and abutting on land of the said Nicholas Phillips to the S.E. and on land of the lord of this * manor in part and the close next described in part to the N.W. and containing by estimation 5 ac., being assessed for rent with the following close. (in margin: John Godbold; 1710 rent 8s. 4 $\frac{1}{2}$ d. the said John Godbold, infant)

The same (Charles Gibson) holds, next to the N. a close of meadow and pasture called le Hopper formerly Robert Cheeke's, gent., lying between land of the lord of this manor on the S.W. and land of Nicholas Garnies, Esq., on the N.E. and abutting on the said meadow of Nicholas Garnies to the N. and on the close last described to the S., containing, by estimation 8 ac. and rendering 14s. 4 $\frac{1}{2}$ d., with the above 2 closes previously described, and suit of court, as appears by court rolls 27 and 29 Eliz. fol. 6 of the rental, fig. 3: see roll for 7 Hen. VIII and 38 Hen. VIII. (in margin: 1710 Ipswich trustees 6s.; John Godbold 8s. 4 $\frac{1}{2}$ d.; Ipswich town:

Reginald Mayhewe holds copyhold of the lord of this manor a close called Shepecoate Close lying between land of Thomas Horseman, gent., in part and land of Richard Moyses in part on the W., and copyhold land of the same Reginald of Blodhall fee in part and the close next described in part on the E. and abutting on land of Aspall rectory to the N. and on land of the said Thomas Horseman in part and land of James Bond in part to the S., containing by estimation 10 ac. and rendering 6s. 1d. p.a. as appears by court rolls 13, 23 and 24 Hen. VIII, 38 Eliz., 2 Jas. and fol. 17 of the rental fig. 2.

(in margin: now John Mayhewe; 1702 now Joseph Fuller in the right of his wife; 1710 Peter Sidebottom in the right of Sarah his wife, 1709)

f.21v * The same (Reginald Mayhewe) holds copyhold of the lord of this manor a close of pasture called Cley Close lately of the demesne of the manor, lying between the lord's land called Aspall Close on the E. and the close last described called Shepecoate Close in part and land of Aspall Rectory in part on the W. and abutting on land of the manor of Blodhall called Pales in the tenure of the same Reginald in part and the aforesaid Shepecoate Close in part to the S. and on the highway leading from Aspall to Debenham to the N., containing by estimation 7 ac. and rendering 6s. 4 $\frac{1}{2}$ d. as appears by court rolls 1 - 38 Eliz. and 6 Jas. and by the rental of 2 and 3 Phil. and Mary fol. 9 fig. 4.

(in margin: the aforesaid Fuller; 1710 Peter Sidebottom in the right of Sarah his wife 1709).

John Salmon holds copyhold of the lord of this manor a close of meadow and pasture called Brachams in Aspall containing by estimation 3 $\frac{1}{2}$ ac. once Robert Braham's, with a dwelling house and a le hayehouse newly built on it, lying together and newly enclosed with live hedge, between land of this manor in the copyhold tenure of John Dobbs, gent., called Rawlingshaugh on the S.E. and the close next described on the N.W. and abutting on the lord's wood now meadow in the copy-

f.22 hold tenure of John * Dobbs called Rawlyngs alias Rawlyngshaugh Woode to the N.E. and on the highway leading from Aspall to Thorndon to the S.W., rendering 20d. p.a. 2 hens and a cock, as appears by court rolls 29 Hen. VIII, 8 and 21 Eliz. and 12 Jas. and by the rental of 2 and 3 Phil. and Mary fol. 6 fig. 1.

(in margin: 1702 now (blank); 1710 Joseph Kersey 1704 and 1705).

The same (John Salmon) holds there next to the S.W. a copyhold close of land containing, by estimation 3 ac. 22 perches called Redings in Aspall lying between the close and tenement last described on the S.E. and land lately Edward Grymston's now in the tenure of Harbottle Grimston, Knt. and Bart. called Spittlemans on the N.W. and abutting on the lord's wood now meadow called Rawlyngshaughwoode to the N.E., rendering, with the piece next described, 5s. 10d. as appears by court rolls of 29 and 38 Eliz. 8 and 12 Jas.

(1702 now (blank); 1710 Joseph Kersey)

The same (John Salmon) holds copyhold of the lord of this manor at the N. end of the wood or meadow of the lord called Rawlyngswoode, a piece of land containing by estimation $\frac{1}{2}$ ac. and lying between land of Harbottle Grymston, Kt. and Bart.,

f.22v both on the E. and on the W. and abutting * on the aforesaid meadow of John Dobbs called Rawlyngswoode to the S. and on land lately Robert List's, afterwards John List's, to the N., with ploughed meres (mera arrat'), and assessed for rent with the preceding piece, as appears by court roll of 29, 38 Eliz., 8, 10, 12 Jas.

(in margin: 1702 now (blank) 1710 Joseph Kersey.)

John Dobbes, gent., holds copyhold of the lord of this manor a wood called Rawlyngs alias Rawlyngshaughwoode, now meadow, lying between land of this manor called le Downe, now in the copyhold tenure of the said John Dobbs on the E. or S.E. and land formerly of the Priory of Redlingfield on the W. or N.W. and abutting on copyhold land of this manor called Rawlyngs alias Bachams in part, and copyhold land of this manor called Reedings in part to the S. or S.W. and on the piece last described in part and land of Harbottle Grymston, Kt., in part, to the N. or N.E., containing by estimation 9 ac. 1 rood 28 p.

(in margin: now W. Alston, gent; 1710 now Oliver Taster, gent; John Pyne 1713)

The same (John Dobbes) holds next to the E. an enclosure or field of land and pasture called le Downe alias Rawlings now divided in 2 parts by live hedges
 f.23 * lying together between the wood or meadow last described called Rawlingshaugh-woode in part and the aforesaid land called Brachams in part, on the W. or N.W., and the close or field next described called Richmansfeld, in the copyhold tenure of the same John Dobbes in part and land of this manor called Gildenacre in part and land of Aspall fee called Gildenacre in part on the E. or S.E., and abutting on land of Harbottle Grymston, Kt., in part and land now or lately Paul Banyngs, Kt., and Bart. in part and land of George Brooke, Esq. in part to the N.E. and on the highway leading from Aspall to Thorndon called Chethelyes Wey to the S.W., and containing by estimation $24\frac{1}{2}$ ac. 37 perches
 (in margin: 1710 the said Taster; the said Pyne 1713)

The same (John Dobbes) holds there to the E. an enclosure called Richmansfeld of copyhold land, now divided into 3 parts, of which one part is a small piece on one side of the close called le Downe in the copyhold tenure of the same John Dobbs last described; and another piece lying together in 2 furlongs between land
 f.23v of Aspall fee in part, and land of this fee in part on the N. * and land of Aspall fee called Gildenacre in part, free land lately Thomas Horseman's gent. of Blodhall fee in part and copyhold land of this manor in the tenure of the same John Dobbes in part, on the S. and abutting on land of Aspall manor to the E. and on the close last described to the W., containing altogether, by estimation 20 ac. 3 roods 7 perches.
 (in margin: 1710 the said Taster; the aforesaid Pyne 1713)

The same (John Dobbes) holds copyhold similarly of the lord of this manor, near there to the S., next to Chechelyes Way, a piece of land called Gilden Acre lying between the said way on the S. and land of Aspall fee in the tenure of the same John to the N. and abutting on the last but one enclosure called le Downe alias Rawlings aforesaid to the W. and on the piece next described to the E. and containing by estimation $3\frac{1}{2}$ ac. 39 perches.
 (in margin: 1710 the said Taster; the said Pyne 1713).

The same (John Dobbes) holds copyhold of this manor next to the E. a piece of land containing by estimation $\frac{1}{2}$ ac., lying between the piece last described in part and land of the manor of Aspall in part on the W. and land of Aspall fee on f.24 the E. and abutting on land * of this manor called Richmansfeld to the N. and on the green called Thickpittell grene to the S.
 (in margin: 1710 the said Taster, the said Pyne 1713)

The same (John Dobbes) holds copyhold of the lord of this manor on the N. of Gildenacre a piece of land lying between the said enclosure of copyhold land called Richmansfeld on the N. and the piece of land of Aspall fee on the S. and abutting on copyhold land of this fee both to the E. and to the W. and called Sparrowesland, containing by estimation $\frac{1}{2}$ ac. $34\frac{1}{2}$ p.
 (in margin 1710 the said Taster; the said Pyne 1713)

The same (John Dobbes) holds near there a piece of copyhold meadow of this fee lying between a small piece of the manor of Scottnetts in part and the meadow formerly Robert Hoo's now Elizabeth Horseman's, widow, in part on the W. and the highway leading from Thickpictell Grene to Thorndon on the E. and abutting on the meadow of the manor of Ulston Hall to the S. and on the aforesaid highway to the N., containing by estimation $1\frac{1}{2}$ ac.
 (in margin: as last)

The same (John Dobbes) holds copyhold of the lord of this manor a capital
 f.24v messuage in which he now lives called Fukes alias Fookes with certain gardens * orchards, land and meadow lying together and adjacent to it between land of the manor of Blodhall (sold free or rented) in part and land of this manor in part, on the N. and the highway there leading from Aspall church to Thorndon in part and the small piece of free land formerly Revetts of this fee lying at the end of the orchard in part on the S. and abutting on the way leading from the said highway there to Eye on the W. and on the green called Thickpictell Grene to the E. and containing by estimation 5 ac.
 (in margin: as last)

The same (John Dobbes) holds of the lord of this manor a close of land and pasture in 3 pieces, of which the first piece lies in the middle of the close is of the fee of Blodhall sold freely or rented and extending to the N. head of one of the other two copyhold pieces in the same close; the close itself lying between land of the manor of Aspall in part and copyhold land of this fee called Stonyland in part on the E. and the piece next described on the W. and abutting on the lord's wood in the copyhold tenure of the same John called Shardeywood alias Shredeshedgewoode in part and Stonyland aforesaid in part to the N. and on the meadow of this fee to the S., containing by estimation 4 ac.
(in margin: 1710 the aforesaid Taster; the aforesaid Pyne 1713)

f.25 * The same (John Dobbes) holds copyhold of the lord of this manor next to the W. a piece of land, partly enclosed, in the close of John himself called le Holme-close, lying between the close last described on the E. and the small piece of land formerly Ducketts, of Blodhall fee on the W. and abutting on the copyhold wood of this fee called Shredhedgewoode to the N. and on land of this fee to the S., containing by estimation 4 ac.
(in margin: as last)

The same (John Dobbes) holds copyhold of the lord of this manor next to the N. a wood called Shardeywood alias Shredeshedgewoode, lying between the copyhold land of this manor last described on the S. and copyhold land of this fee called Richmansfeld to the N. and abutting on land of the Manor of Blodhall sold freely to the W. and on the copyhold land of this manor called Stonyland to the E. and containing by estimation $2\frac{1}{2}$ ac.
(in margin: as last)

f.25v The same (John Dobbes) holds copyhold of the lord of this manor next to the E., a close of land and pasture called Stonyland in Debenham lying between the aforesaid wood called Shredhedgewoode last described in part and other copyhold land of this fee in part and * land of the Manor of Aspall in part on the W. and land of the Manor of Croweshall called Stonyland, now in exchange with the lord of the Manor of Aspall alias Harbergh on the E. and abutting on the copyhold lands of this manor called Richmansfeld in part and land of George Brooke, Esq., in part to the N. and on land of the Manor of Aspall in part and the land of this Manor called Danyells in part, to the S. and containing, by estimation, 8 ac. 1 rood
(in margin: 1710 the aforesaid Taster; the aforesaid Pyne 1713)

f.26 The same holds similarly, copyhold of the lord of this manor next to the S. a messuage now wasted called Danyells with a wood called Danyells Woods, a pightle of pasture called Danyells Pightle, a croft called Danyells Croft and a piece of pasture called Danyells Green with the way in it leading from Aspall church to Eye, going through it (intermediante), lying together between the land of this manor last described in part and land of the manor of Aspall in part on the W. and land and meadow of this manor in part and land of Aspall fee in part on the E. and abutting on land of Croweshall fee in part and land of Aspall fee in part to the N. and on land of the lord's rectory of Aspall in part and on land of this fee in part to the S., containing * together, by estimation, 14 ac. and rendering together, for all the above premises in the copyhold tenure of John Dobbes £4 3s. 4d., suit of court and other services, as appears by court rolls of 15 Hen. VII, 22 Hen. VIII 21 Eliz. and by the rental of 2 and 3 Phil. and Mary fol. 1 and by the rental of 2 Eliz.
(in margin: 1710 the aforesaid Taster; the aforesaid Pyne 1713)

John Shulvard holds copyhold of the lord of this manor a close of meadow called Church medowe alias Wellsmedowe containing by estimation 6 ac. 3 roods $22\frac{1}{2}$ perches formerly Francis Brooke's and lately George Brook's Esq., lying near Aspall church between land of this manor on the S. and land of Aspall fee on the N. and abutting on the lord's meadow called Wynchesters Medowe in part and the lord's close called Wynchesters Close in part to the E. and on the pightle of this manor called Bridge Medowe to the W., rendering, together with the close next described, 8s. 10d. p.a., as appears by court rolls of 36 Eliz., 5 and 10 Jas.
(in margin: now Howes Mayhewe; 1710 now John Jeffrey, clerk; Jane Garneys 1712)

f.26v * The same (John Shulvard) holds copyhold of the lord of this manor next to the S. an enclosure called Churchland alias Churchmedowe Close alias Wells Close in Aspall formerly Francis Brooke's lately George Brooke's Esq., lying between the land of Scotnetts fee called Wynchesters Close on the E. and land of this manor of the portion of Aspall Chapel on the W. and abutting on the meadow last described to the N. and on the highway leading from Debenham to Thorndon in part and on land of this manor in the same enclosure in part, to the S., containing, by estimation, 8 ac. 36 perches, and included for rent purposes in the preceding close of meadow, as appears by court rolls of 37 Eliz., 6 and 10 Jas. and by the rental of 2 and 3 Phil. and Mary fo. 16 fig. 1.
(in margin: 1710 the aforesaid Jeffrey, clerk; the aforesaid Garneys 1712)

The same (John Shulvard) holds copyhold of this manor on the E. of the close called Wynchesters Close, 3 ware ac. of land formerly called Haylestons Ovene, once John Bond's, lately Edward Corbold's, lying between the close called Wynchesters Close on the W. and land of Edward Unger's the younger, gent., on the E. f.27 and abutting on the aforesaid land called Wynchesters to the N. and * on le Hundred Wey thare to the S., rendering 4s. p.a., as appears by court rolls of 17, and 28 Hen. VIII, 22 Eliz. 5, 6 and 10 Jas. and by the rental of 2 and 3 Phil. and Mary fol. 5 fig. 4
(in margin: 1702 now Thomas Rodberd, Esq., 1710 Temple Chevelier Esq. 1705)

Edward Unger the younger, gent., holds copyhold of the lord of this manor a piece of land and meadow lately of the demesne of the manor, called Sladelond, once George Harrison's, lately Ralph Styles' containing, by estimation, 1 ac. 1 rood 34 perches, lying in the close called Lamberds between land of the same Edward on both sides and abutting on the land of the lord called Bryles in part and land of Edward Corbold of Blodhall fee in part to the S. and on land of George Brooke, Esq., of Blodhall fee called Clamp Pightle to the N., rendering 16d. p.a. as appears by court rolls of 28 Hen VIII, 13, 16, 30, 36 and 43 Eliz., 6 and 18 Jas. and fol. 4 of the rental fig. 3.
(in margin: Entered (on) f.37 for true abuttals)

f.27v William Moyse holds copyhold of the lord of this manor a close of pasture called Hunger downe containing by estimation 14 ac. in Debenham * lying between land of Alam Catchpoll in the right of his wife lately the wife of Richard Moyse in part and land of Thomas Spillisby in part on the E. and land of the same William Moyse in part and land of William Bond in part on the W. and abutting on the highway or green of the lord called Heyesway, leading from Debenham to Stonham, to the N. and on land of Thomas Spillisby in part and land of the said William Moyse in part to the S., rendering 7s. p.a. as appears by court rolls of 1 Edw. VI, 6, 34, 38 and 40 Eliz. and by the rental of 2 and 3 Phil. and Mary fol. 3 fig. 3.
(in margin: 1702 now (blank); 1710 Riseing Smith in the right of his wife; the lord's common)

Reginald Eade holds copyhold of the lord of this manor a close called Gardnersfeld alias Stubfeild once Richard Moyse's and Alice his wife's containing by estimation 33 ac. in Debenham, with the messuage, barn, bakehouse and a stable built on it, now divided, with the site, into 6 parts, lying altogether between the lands of Richard Jefferyes called Gardners on the E. and land of John Britton, gent. on the W. and abutting on land of the same John Brytton to the N. and on f.28* the way or common of the lord there, of Scotnetts fee called Heyesway alias Heyes Grene, to the S., rendering 26s. 8d. p.a. as appears by court rolls of 9 and 27 Hen. VIII, 2, 8, 13 and 25 Eliz. and 3 Jas., and fol. 8 fig. 4 of the rental (in margin: now John Brytten, gent; 1710 now George Goody, gent. 1700; the lord's common).

William Moyse holds copyhold of the lord of this manor, opposite the said way, a piece of enclosed land containing, by estimation, 3 ac., once Robert Bond's, lying between land of the same William on the W. and land of William Bond on the E. and abutting on land of the said William Moyse to the S. and on Wrongselough in Heyesway to the N., rendering 2s. p.a. as appears by court rolls of 38 Hen VIII, 19 and 40 Eliz. and fol. 8 of the rental fig. 1.
(in margin: 1702 now (blank) 1710 Riseing Smith in the right of his wife)

Butley 1621

- 10 -

f.28v Anthony Wrethoke, gent., holds copyhold of the lord of this manor 2 ac. of meadow by estimation, once Thomas Bonde's, lying between land lately Robert Cheeke's, gent., now John Brytton's, gent., on the N. and the common way of the lord of Scotnett fee called Heyeswey on the S. and abutting on the same way both to * the E. and the W. rendering 5s. p.a. as appears by court rolls of 33 Hen. VIII, 5, 18 and 24 Eliz. 5 and 18 Jas. and by the rental of 2 and 3 Phil. and Mary fol. 8 fig. 3
(in margin: 1710 now George Goody, gent; the lord's common)

Christopher Cowper holds copyhold of the lord of this manor a messuage or tenement called Cattenhawe alias Catten house with the orchards and garden and 5 closes of land, meadow and pasture adjacent, in Debenham, once John Woode's, lying together between land of William Moyse on the E. and the land of Thomas Harvy on the W. and abutting on land of the same Thomas Harvy in part and the highway aforesaid called Heyeswey in part to the N. and on land lately John Folkard's in part and on the site of the tenement and land of George Harrison in part and land of John Tovell in part and on land of the said Christopher of Winston fee in part to the S., containing altogether by estimation, 32 ac.; rendering 24s. 6d. p.a. as appears by court rolls of 1 Mary, 1, 14, 15, 21 and 43 Eliz.
(in margin: now Henry Smith; 1702 sic; 1710 Thomas Rodbard, Esq., 1707)

f.29 * Thomas Harvy, gent., holds copyhold of the lord of this manor a capital messuage or tenement called Jefferyes with a house called le Dayryhowse, a barn, a stable, with orchards, garden and 5 enclosures of land, meadow and pasture adjacent to the said messuage, containing, in total, by estimation, 33 ac., with the appurtenances, in Debenham lying together between land of Christopher Cowper on the E. and land of George Harrison on the W. and abutting on the green called Prickfield Wey to the N. and on land of Christopher Cowper in part and land of (blank) Ale-founder in part, to the S., containing altogether, by estimation, 33 ac. and rendering for it 33s. 5½d. p.a., as appears by court rolls of 13 (erased to 8) Hen. VIII 4 and 5 Phil. and Mary, 13, 38 Eliz. and 16 Jas. and fol. 3 of the rental, fig. 1.
(in margin: 1702 now (blank); 1710 Hannah Turner, spinster, 1695)

f.29v George Harrison holds copyhold of the lord of this manor 6 ac. of land and pasture, partly enclosed, lying in the close called Poysons in Debenham, formerly Walter * Blower, between the highway leading from Debenham to Mickfield on the W. and a piece of free land of this fee in the same close to the E. and abutting on the close called Blackmansland to the N. and on Prickswey aforesaid to the S., rendering 6s. 2½d. p.a. and suit of court, as appears by court rolls of 18 Hen. VIII, 2 and 3, 7, 9 and 44 Eliz. and 12 Jas. and fol. 14 of the rental, fig. 2
(in margin: 1710 now Samuel Bury, Clerk; 1711 Robert Hempson; 6s. 2½d.)

The same (George Harrison) holds freely of the lord of this manor a piece of land called Pewsans alias Poysons, lying next to the E. between the piece last described on the W. and land of the same George Harrison on the E. and abutting on the copyhold land of this fee called Blackmansland to the N. and on the way aforesaid to the S., rendering 9d. p.a. and suit of court as appears by court roll of 28 Hen. VIII
(in margin: 1710 the aforesaid Bury; 1711 the aforesaid Hempson; 0s. 9d.)

The same (George Harrison) holds copyhold next to the N. of the lord of this manor an enclosure of pasture called Blackmansland containing, by estimation, 8 ac. 32 perches, lying between Blackmans wey on the W. and land of the same George Harrison on the E. and abutting on the close last described called Poysons to the S., rendering 3s. 2d. p.a., as appears by court rolls of 13 and 44 Eliz. and 12 Jas.
(in margin: as last, but 3s. 2d.)

The same (George Harrison) holds next to the W. a piece of land called Blackmanswey lying alongside (per latere') the same enclosure, containing by estimation 3 roods 11 perches and rendering 5s. p.a. as appears by court rolls of 27, 44 Eliz. and 12 Jas.
(in margin: as last, but no amount shown)

f.30 * Edward Unger the elder, gent., holds copyhold of the lord of this manor an enclosure called Fullers alias Kerrs Close alias Beylonds, with the appurtenances formerly built upon, containing, by estimation 3 ac., once Christopher Rivett's, in Debenham, lying between land formerly John Chapman's now the said Edward Unger's on the E. and the highway leading from Aspoll to Debenham in part and the piece of this fee next described in part, on the W. and abutting on the said way to the S. and on land of Blodhall fee to the N., rendering, with the next piece, 18d. and suit of court, as appears by court rolls of 15, 19 Hen. VIII, 4 and 40 Eliz., 4 Jas. and fol. 4 of the rental fig. 4.
(in margin: 1710 now John Lomax; now Davy, John, 1711)

The same (Edward Under the elder) holds copyhold, next to the W., a piece of pasture, formerly Stephen Chechely's, lying between the enclosure last described on the E. and the way there called le Hundred Wey on the W. and abutting on the said way to the S., containing by estimation $1\frac{1}{2}$ roods and included for rent purposes with the preceding enclosure, as appears by court rolls of 15, 19 Hen. VIII, 8, 4 and 40 Eliz. 4 Jas. and fol. 4 fig. 4 of the rental.
(in margin: 1710 the aforesaid Lomax; Davy John 1711)

f.30v * Nicholas Sherman holds copyhold of the lord of this manor an enclosure of meadow and pasture called Olds, once Agnes Skargate's, formerly Henry Runkettle's, in Debenham, lying between land of James Bond on the N. and free land of Blodhall fee in the tenure of Nicholas himself in part and the lord's way called Stewardsfeld Lane leading from Wetheringsett to Debenham on the S. and abutting on the aforesaid piece of free land in the same enclosure in part and land of the lord called Newclose in part, land of James Bond in part, to the W. and on land of George Phillips called Spurflints in part, and land of John Culham in part to the E., containing, by estimation 13 ac. and rendering 13s. p.a. as appears by court rolls 16, 30 Hen. VIII, 4 and 5 Phil. and Mary, 5, 14, 24 and 41 Eliz. and fol. 18 of the rental fig. 1
(in margin: 1702 now Susan the wife of John Dawling; 1710 John Davy, 1703; the lord's common)

f.31 John Culham holds copyhold of the lord of this manor a pightle lying in a certain enclosure called Olds, containing by estimation $1\frac{1}{2}$ ac., lying between the land called Derehaughbrooke on the E. and land of the same John lately Gregory Frinde's on the W. and abutting on the meadow of John * Smyth of Blodhall fee to the S. and on the lord's way called Blodhall way to the N., rendering 2s. p.a. as appears by court rolls of 12 Hen. VIII, 3 and 4 Phil. and Mary 35 Eliz. and 3 Jas. and fol. 3 fig. 2 of the rental.
(in margin: now Richard Culham; 1710 John Davy, draper, 1702; the lord's common)

John Barker holds copyhold of the lord of the manor, the next close, similarly, called Caymes, to the N., being a close of land and pasture, now enclosed and divided into 3 parcels or pightles, lying in the field called Blodfeld, between the close of this fee in part and the copyhold close of this fee in the tenure of George Phillips called le Overdowne in part, on the S. and land of Nicholas Garnies, Edq. in Blodfeild on the N. and abutting on the land of Robert Tovell called le Harrowe in part and the close called Little blodfeld in part to the E., and on the lord's way of the fee of Scotnetts called Blodfeld Grene alias Blodfeldwey to the W., containing altogether, by estimation 15 ac. and renders 20s. p.a. as appears by court roll (no more)
(in margin: on examination, is of the lord's fee of Scotnetts, therefore void; the lord's common)

f.31v * Nicholas Sherman holds freely of the lord of this fee his capital messuage with the houses, gardens and orchards adjacent, situated between the copyhold tenement of this fee in the tenure of John Smith, Joyner, on the S. and land of John Barker on the N. and abutting on copyhold land of this manor called le Downe to the E. and on the street called le Downerowe to the W., and rendering, it is said, 6d. p.a.
(in margin: 1702 now (blank); 1710 Thomas Sharman)

B utley 1621

Nicholas Garnies, Esq., holds copyhold of the lord of this manor a piece of land containing, by estimation 3 ac., in the field called Littleblodfeld, lying between Nicholas' own land in the same field on the N. and the close of the same Nicholas of Scotnett fee called Goryland on the S., abutting on Nicholas' land in the same field to the W. and on his lands in part and the way called le Pry-oryway leading from Debenham to Kenton in a small part to the E., rendering 18d. p.a. and suit of court and other services as appears by court roll of 27 Eliz. (in margin: now Charles Garnies, Esq.; 1710 now Wentworth Garnies, Esq., deceased)

f.32 * John Dobbes, gent., holds freely of the lord of this manor a piece of pasture at the end of his orchard, lying between copyhold land of the tenement Fookes on 3 sides and abutting on the highway leading from Aspoll church to Thorndon to the S. formerly Rivetts, and containing by estimation 3 ac. and rendering 18d. p.a. and suit of court as appears by the rental of 2 and 3 Phil. and Mary fol. 1. (in margin: 1710 now Oliver Taster, gent.; John Pyne 1713)

The townsmen of Debenham hold of the lord of this manor a tenement called le Townhouse, situated between the churchyard there on the E. and the street there on the W. and abutting on the tenement next described to the N. and on le entrye or le Churchyard grate (sic) to the S., rendering 12d. p.a. as appears by the rental of 2 and 3 Phil. and Mary fol. 10 fig. 2. (in margin: 1702 now, sic; 1710 the town of Debenham)

William Motts holds there next, freely of the lord of this manor, a tenement situated between the churchyard of Debenham on the E. and the said street on the W. and abutting on the tenement of William Scotten of Sackvills fee to the N. and on le Townhouse aforesaid to the S., rendering 6d. p.a. as appears in fol. 39 of the abstract and by court roll of 44 Eliz. (in margin: 1702 now (blank); 1710 Jonathan Beadwell)

f.32v. *Dorothy Daldy, widow, holds copyhold of the lord of this manor a piece of meadow lying between land of Simon Sponer alias Jeffery of Croweshall fee on the E. and land lately Richard Moyse's, now Alan Catchpoll's in the right of his wife on the W. and abutting on land of Croweshall fee called Burmaydens to the N. and on the highway leading from Debenham to Ipswich to the S., rendering 16d. p.a. and suit of court and containing by estimation 2 ac., as appears by court roll 1 Edw. VI, 16, 28, 31 and 36 Eliz. and fol. II of the rental fig. 1. (in margin: 1702 now (blank); 1710 Henry Bucknam 1691; Samuel Daldy)

Sir William Masham, bart., holds copyhold of the lord of this manor a piece of land in Ashfield between land of the Manor of Earl Soham now in the tenure of Sir William himself on the W. and le Hundred Meere there on the E. and abutting on land of the lord's fee of Ashfeld Hall to the S. and on land of the said William to the N., containing by estimation 2 ac. and rendering 12d. p.a. and suit of court as appears by court roll of 20 Hen. VIII, 27, 34 Eliz. 16 and 18 Jas. (in margin: 1710 now Francis Masham, bart.)

f.33 * The same (Sir William Masham) holds freely of the lord of this manor an empty messuage with the pightle formerly William Bence's lately Thomas Dandys, gent., lying between the common way leading from Earl Soham to Debenham on the S. and the meadow of the same Sir William of this fee on the N. and abutting on the meadow of the same Sir William lately Thomas Dandy to the E. and on the common way there to the W., containing by estimation 1 ac. and rendering 6¹/₂d. p.a. and suit of court, as appears by the survey book of 22 Eliz. fig. 1. and by the rental of Ashfield, undated fig. 26 (in margin: 1710 the aforesaid Masham)

The same (Sir William Masham) similarly holds a piece of meadow of the tenement of Osbert Picknott formerly William Bence, lying in the said meadow of the said Sir William called Bences Medowe, between the meadow of the same Sir William on the W. and his meadow of Croweshall fee on the E. and abutting on the meadow of the lord of this fee lately in the farm of John Wrethoke, gent., to the N. and on the empty messuage last described formerly William Bence's to the S., rendering at the feast of St. Matthew and Easter 6d. p a. and a cock (gall.) at the feast of the nativity of Our Lord, as appears by the survey book fig. 29 and by the rental of Ashfeld undated, fig. 23.

f.33v * The same (Sir William Masham) holds freely of the lord of this manor a piece of alnd called Gardners land once John Picknott's formerly Dame Margery Kempe's, lately Thomas Dandy's, gent., in Ashfield, lying between land once William Dasie's on the S. and the wasted tenement of Osbert Picknott now the said Sir William on the N. and abutting on the highway leading from Monk Soham to Ashfield church to the E. and on land of the lord's fee of Croweshall called Grenes to the W., containing by estimation 2 ac. and rendering at the feast of St. Matthew and Easter 6d. p.a. by equal portions as appears by fig. 31 of the survey and fig. 13 of the rental
(in margin: 1710 the aforesaid Masham)

Ashfield

The same (Sir William Masham) holds to the N. an empty messuage with the adjacent croft of the tenement of Osbert Picknotts lying between the piece last described on the S. and land of the same Sir William once John Picknott on the N. and abutting as the last; containing by estimation $2\frac{1}{2}$ ac. and rendering $12\frac{1}{2}$ d. at the feasts of St. Michael and Easter by equal portions, 2 hens and a cock at the nativity of our Lord for a meal, as appears in the survey book fig. 32 and by the rental of Ashfield, undated, fig. 19
(in margin: 1710 the aforesaid Masham)

(635) T y the

f.34 * The same (Sir William Masham) holds on the W. his messuage called Games; a piece of land in Smyth Croft lying between land of the same Sir William on the S. and land of the same Sir William formerly Nicholas Game's on the N. and abutting on the saie messuage Games on the N. and abutting on the same messuage called Games of Croweshall fee to the E. and on land of the rectory of Monk Soham to the W., containing by estimation $1\frac{1}{2}$ ac. (with ploughed meers) and included for rent purposes in the empty messuage next to Calf Croft fig. 35 above, fig. 4 rental
(in margin: 1710 the aforesaid Masham)

The same (Sir William Masham) holds next to the N. a piece of land lying between the piece last described on the S. and the piece of land of the same Sir William on the N., and abutting on land of the rectory of Monk Soham to the W. and on the site of the tenement Games to the E.; containing by estimation $1\frac{1}{2}$ ac. and rendering 3d. p.a. as appears by fig. 36 of the survey, fig. 31 of the rental
(in margin: 1710 the aforesaid Masham)

in Kenyon

f.34v The same (Sir William Masham) holds next to the N. a wasted messuage with a piece of land of the tenement Reve, lying between the piece last described in part and the site of the tenement Games of Croweshall fee in part on the S. and the piece next described on the N. and abutting on the common way leading from Monk Soham to * Ashfield church to the E., containing together, by estimation $\frac{1}{2}$ ac. $\frac{1}{2}$ rood and rendering $2\frac{1}{2}$ d. p.a. as appears by fig. 40 of the survey, fig. 29 of the rental.
(in margin: 1710 the aforesaid Masham)

Katon

The same (Sir William Masham) holds next, similarly, to the N., a piece of land lying between the piece last described on the S. and abutting on the site aforesaid to the E. and on land of the rectory of Monk Soham to the W.; containing by estimation $\frac{1}{2}$ ac. $\frac{1}{2}$ rood (with ploughed meers) and rendering $3\frac{1}{2}$ d. p.a. (as appears by) fig. 41 of the survey, fig. 30 of the rental.
(in margin: 1710 the aforesaid Masham)

The same (Sir William Masham) further to the W. of another close (magis occident l' alio Cto) an empty messuage with a close of land and pasture of the tenement formerly Robert de Hoo's lately Thomas Dandy's, gent., lying between demesne land of the lord of this manor called Calf Croft on the W. and the empty messuage once Peter Ardely's lately the said Thomas Dande's on the E. and abutting on the lord's common called Wagglegose Wey leading from Framlingham to Debenham to the N. and on the said close called Calf Croft in part and land of this fee in part to the S., containing by estimation 2 ac. and assessed for rent with the 4 pieces of land of the said tenement 2s. 4d. p.a.; fig. 33 of the survey fig. 1 of the rental.
(in margin: 1710 the aforesaid Masham, the lord's common)

f.35 * The same (Sir William Masham) holds to the S. a piece of free land of the aforesaid 4 pieces, lying between land of this manor called Calf Crofte on the W. and land formerly of the said Thomas Dandy now of the said Sir William in the same close on the E. and abutting on land of the rectory of Monks Soham to the S. and containing by estimation 3 ac.; fig. 34 of the survey; fig. 2 of the Rental (in margin: 1710 the aforesaid Masham)

The same (Sir William Masham) holds freely of the lord of this manor a pightle of land and pasture of the tenement of Andrew Manns with the cottage built upon it, in Monks Soham, lying between land of the manor of Woodcroft both on the N. and on the S. and abutting on the common way leading from Monks Soham to Ashfield to the E. and on land of the said manor of Woodcroft to the W., containing by estimation 1 ac. and paying 3d. r . : fig. 42 of the survey; fig. 16 of the rental. (in margin: 1710 the aforesaid Masham)

f.35v The same (Sir William Masham) holds freely of the tenement once Osbert Picknott's an empty messuage with the curtilage, formerly Simon Goddard's, lying between the common way leading from Monks Soham to Ashfield on the W. * and land of the said Sir William of the Braiseworth fee on the E. and abutting on the common way leading from Earl Soham to Debenham to the N., containing by estimation 1 1/2 ac. and rendering 1/2d. p.a.; fig. 39 of the survey; fig. 20 of the Rental. (in margin: 1710 the aforesaid Masham)

The same (Sir William Masham) holds, next to the S., 2 pieces of land, lying together, between the piece last described in part and land of the fee of Braiseworth in part on the N. and abutting on the highway leading from Monks Soham to Ashfield church to the W., containing, together, by estimation 3 ac., and rendering 3d. p.a.; fig. 37 and 38 of the survey. (in margin: 1710 the aforesaid Masham)

(in margin: 1710 the aforesaid Masham)

f.36 Mr Roger Wolbars holds freely of the lord of this manor the site of a messuage or tenement, called ... a piece of land adjacent, abutting on the site of the aforesaid wasted messuage at the E. head where the tenement of Andrew Manns in Monks Soham, lying between the croft and land now in the tenure of Alice Dalrymple formerly Robert Grybble now Thomas Pen's on the N. and land of this fee lately in the tenure of Thomas Dandy, now Sir William Masham's, part, on the S. and abutting on land of this manor formerly in the tenure of the said Thomas Dandy, now the said Sir William, to the E. and on the common way leading from Monks Soham to Ashfield to the E., containing by estimation 4 ac. and rendering 10d. p.a. and suit of court and other services, as appears by court rolls of 2 and 36 Eliz., fig. 49 of the survey, fol. 2 fol. 13 of the Rental. (in margin: 1710 now (blank); query with Dandy; 1710 The name of William Wolbars).

The same (Roger Wolbars) holds freely of the lord of this manor, a wood lying between a portion of land in the tenure of Sir William Masham called Longpondland in part and other land of the same Sir William in part on the N. and land of Roger Wolbars himself on the S. and abutting on a way called Sneyshedgeway leading from Whytehouse Cross to Creetingham to the N. and on land of the said Sir William to the E., containing by estimation 1 ac. 1 rood, of the tenement of John Hoc. (in margin: 1710 now (blank)).

f.37 *Edward Under the younger, gent. holds of the lord of this manor a piece of meadow and pasture called Sneyshedgeway lately of the messuage of the manor, containing by estimation 1 ac. 1 rood and 16 perches lying in the field called lawberda between land of Edward's own in Westwell Fee on the N.E. and the close of land and pasture of Edward Under the elder, now called Chapman, now called Curra Close on the S.W. and abutting on Curra Close aforesaid in part and in hundred Bay there in part, to the N.E. and on other land of the aforesaid Edward Under the younger in the same close called lawberda to the S.E., rendering 10d. p.a. and suit of court and other services as appears by court rolls of 26 Hen. VIII, 15, 16, 30, 36 and 43 Eliz., 6 & 15 Jac. fol. 2 Rental fig. 3. (in margin: 1710 now John Under)

Debenham Butley continued

f.35v (contd.)

The same (Sir William Masham) holds similarly, freely, of the lord of this manor, a piece of land called Longpondland, lying between land of the said Sir William on both the E. and the W. and abutting on land of the said Sir William to the N. and on the wood formerly of the heir of John Purpelt, gent., lately Anthony Pennyng's, Esq., to the S., containing by estimation 2 ac.; fig. 43 of the survey; fig. 5 of the Rental.

(in margin: 1710: the aforesaid Masham)

f.36 * The same (Sir William Masham) holds, next to the W., a piece of land lying between the last piece called Longpondland on the E. and the way called Snaylehedge Way leading from Whytecrosse Grene to Creetingham on the W. and abutting on the wood of the heir of John Purpelt, gent., once Palmers to the S. and on land of the said Sir William to the N., containing by estimation 3 roods and rendering 2d. p.a.; fig. 44 of the survey; fig. 5 of the Rental.

(in margin: 1710 the aforesaid Masham)

The same (Sir William Masham) holds, next to the W. a piece of free land lying between the said way called Snaylehedge way on the E. and demesne land of the lord of this manor on the W. and abutting on demesne land of the lord to the N. and on land of the said Sir William called Reedesfeld of Crows Hall fee to the S., containing by estimation 1½ ac. and rendering 4d. p.a.; fig. 45 of the survey; fig. 27 of the Rental.

(in margin: 1710 the aforesaid Masham)

The same (Sir William Masham) holds similarly, freely of the lord of this manor, an empty messuage with a piece of land lying between land formerly Purpeltts on the W. and abutting on the wood of Earl Soham church to the S., containing by estimation 2 ac. and rendering 9d., a hen and a cock p.a.; fig. 46 of the survey; fig. 12 of the Rental.

(in margin: 1710 the aforesaid Masham)

f.36v * Roger Holberts holds freely of the lord of this manor the site of a messuage or tenement, wasted, (with) a piece of land adjacent, abutting on the site of the aforesaid wasted messuage at the E. head once the tenement of Andrew Manns in Monks Soham, lying between the croft and land once in the tenure of Alice Baldwyn formerly Robert Grymble now Thomas Fen's on the N. and land of this fee lately in the tenure of Thomas Dandy, gent. now Sir William Masham's, bart. on the S. and abutting on land of this manor formerly in the tenure of the said Thomas Dandy, now the said Sir William, to the W. and on the common way leading from Monks Soham to Ashfield to the E., containing by estimation 6 ac. and rendering 18d. p.a. and suit of court and other services, as appears by court rolls of 2 and 36 Eliz., fig. 49 of the survey, fol. 2 fol. 19 of the Rental.

(in margin: 1702 now (blank); query this Rent; 1710 The heirs of William Folkard).

The same (Roger Holbecks) holds freely of the lord of this manor, a wood lying between a portion of land in the tenure of Sir William Masham called Longpondland in part and other land of the same Sir William in part on the N. and land of Roger Holbeck himself on the S. and abutting on a way called Snaylehedge way leading from Whytecrose Grene to Creetingham to the W. and on land of the said Sir William to the E., containing by estimation 1 ac. 1 rood, of the tenement of John Hoo.

(in margin: 1702 now (blank)).

f.37 * Edward Unger the younger, gent., holds copyhold of the lord of this manor a piece of meadow and pasture called Sladelond lately of the demesne of the manor, containing by estimation 1 ac. 1 rood and 34 perches lying in the field called Lamberds between land of Edward's own in Scottnett fee on the N.E. and the close of land and pasture of Edward Unger the elder, once called Chapmans, now called Currs Close on the S.W. and abutting on Currs Close aforesaid in part and le Hundred Way there in part, to the N.W. and on other land of the aforesaid Edward Unger the younger in the same close called Lamberds to the S.E., rendering 16d. p.a. and suit of court and other services as appears by court rolls of 28 Hen. VIII, 13, 16, 30, 36 and 43 Eliz., 6, 18 Jas. fol. 4 Rental fig. 3.

(in margin: 1710 now John Lomax)

37v * Anthony Wrethoke holds copyhold of the lord of this fee a piece of copyhold land in Debenham lying between free land of Croweshall fee called Salmons in the tenure of George Phillips on one side and land lately Lionel Fosdick's now the aforesaid Anthony's on the other, and abutting on the common way next to Bucks Grene to the N. and demesne land of the lord of this manor to the S., containing by estimation 3 roods and 34 perches and rendering 20d. p.a. as appears by court rolls of 28 Eliz., 5 and 18 Jas., fol. 6 fig. 3 of the Rental of 2 and 3 Phil. and Mary lately King and Queen of England.
(nothing in margin)

38 * Samuel Tuthill holds freely of the lord of this manor a capital messuage or tenement in which he lives at this present time, once John Woodeard's, after Thomas Boore's, formerly Becketts and lately John Tuthill's the father of the aforesaid Samuel, in Ashfield, lying between land formerly William Awstyn's now Peter Tyler's on the S. and land once John Lock's now the aforesaid Samuel's on the N., and abutting on the common way leading from the bridge called Samford Bridge to Ashfield church, to the E., containing by estimation 2 ac. by the Soham measure (mensure de Soham) and rendering 12d. 2 hens and a cock p.a. as appears by the old rental of 26 Edw. III fig. 127 and by court rolls of 19 and 21 Eliz. and fig. 54 of the survey of 22 Eliz. for Ashfield: see roll of 27 Hen. VIII.
(in margin: now John Curtyes; 1702 now (blank); 1710 now Mr. Browne).

38v * John Flowerdewe holds freely of the lord of this manor a capital messuage with orchards, garden and small pightles adjacent containing 3 ac. of land with a piece of pasture at the S.E. head containing 1 ac., formerly Edward Calver's lately Charles Flowerdewe's, lying together between land of William Drane on the S.E. and land of John Aldrich on the N.W. and abutting on land of the aforesaid William Drane in part and land of John Flowerdewe himself in part to the N. and on the highway leading from Eye to Earl Soham to the S.W., held by the annual rent of 2s. 4d. and suit of court, as appears by the old extent of 26 Edw. III and by the Rental in the same book, written on parchment, fig. 42, and by court rolls of 42, and 44 Eliz. and 20 Jas. and 34 Hen. VII and by the Rental of 2 and 3 Phil. and Mary fol. 6 fig. 2.
(in margin: 1702 now (blank); 1710 Charles Fenn)

39 * John Britton, gent., holds freely of the lord of this manor 3 pieces of land lying in the field called Capellfeld, of which the first (piece) contains by estimation 13 ac. 3 roods 23½ perches and lies between land of Robert Tovell on the E. and stretches to the mere in another close beyond the live hedge there newly made (ad mera' alio Clō ultra viva' sepem ibī de novo fact') and abutting on land now Simon Tovell's lately John Fayerweather's in part and land of John Smyth of Blodhall fee in part (the common way being between) to the N. and on land of Richard Jefferyes in part and copyhold land of this fee in the tenure of Reginald Eade in part, to the S.
(in margin: 1710 now George Goody, gent.)

The 2nd piece lies near there (a piece lying between) between that same piece on the E. and the piece next described in part and le Melfeld in part on the W. and abutting on copyhold land of this manor in the tenure of the aforesaid Reginald Eade to the S. and on land of the aforesaid John Smyth in part and the piece next described in part to the N. and containing by estimation (blank)
(in margin: 1710: the aforesaid Gooday)

The 3rd piece lies between the last piece in part and a piece of le Melfeld in part on the S. and land of John Smyth (the way being between) on the N. and abutting on the last piece to the E. and on le Melfeld (the live hedge newly made being between) to the W., containing by estimation 5 ac., with the houses newly erected on it by the aforesaid way, and rendering, altogether, 10s. p.a. as appears by the rental of the manor and by le Extent of 13 Hen. VI.
(in margin: 1710 Gooday aforesaid)

39v * William Burman holds in the right of his wife lately the relict of Richard Motts, freely of the lord of this manor, a pightle of meadow and pasture in Debenham, lying between the common way leading from Debenham to Aspell church on the E. and copyhold land of the lords fee of his manor of Scotnetts on the W. and abutting on land of the fee of Scotnetts in the copyhold tenure of James Bond the younger called Breedsash to the S. and on the lane there called Dewyslane to the N., containing by estimation 3 ac. and rendering 8d. p.a. as appears by court rolls 9 and 19 Jas.
(in margin: 1710 now Robert Patt, draper)

Richard Jefferyes holds copyhold of the lord of this manor a piece of pasture with the footway called Gardners Wey through it (mediante) from (a) the greenway called Heyswey alias Heysgrene containing 1 ac. 1 rood 10 perches, lying between land of Richard Jefferyes himself on the E. and the piece of copyhold land next described on the W. and abutting on the aforesaid way called Heyswey to the S. and the land of the same Richard in the same close to the N., rendering, with the 2 pieces next described, 4s. and 9d. and suit of court and other services, as appears by court rolls of 33 Hen. VIII, 27 Eliz. and 16 Jas.

(in margin: now Simon Jefferyes; now Simon Tovell; 1702 now (blank); 1710 Francis Kilderbey in the right of his wife)

f.40 * The same (Richard Jefferyes) holds next to the W. copyhold of the lord of this manor a piece of land containing by estimation, 1 ac., lying between the piece last described on the E. and on land of Richard's own in the same close on the W., abutting on the piece of copyhold land next described to the N., assessed with the preceding piece.

(in margin: 1710 the aforesaid Kilderby)

The same (Richard Jefferyes) holds next to the N., copyhold of the lord of this manor a piece of land containing by estimation 1 1/2 roods 9 perches, lying between Richard's own land in the same close on all sides and assessed with the last but one piece.

(in margin: 1710 the aforesaid Kilderby)

Thomas Bedingfelde Esq., holds freely of the lord of this manor a messuage or tenement in Bedingfield in which one William Allome now lives with a croft adjacent, once John Toke's lately John Punchard's, lying between the close formerly Simon Bennett's now this same Thomas' on the E. and land formerly Simon Man's lately John Allen alias Horth's now Thomas Bond's on the W., abutting on the common way there leading from Kenton to Eye, to the N. and on the green there called Bedingfeld Grene to the S., containing, by estimation 3 1/2 ac. and rendering 3s. p.a. as appears by the old extent book of * 26 Edw. III (and of his reign over France 13) fol. 4 and by the rental in the same book fig. 34 and by the rental of 2 and 3 Phil. and Mary and by the rentals of 2 and 24 Eliz. and by court rolls of 24 Hen. VII, 27, 28 and 42 Eliz. and by the Account of John Wrethoke made 2 Jas. now king.

(in margin: now Philip Bedingfeld, Esq.; 1702 now (blank); 1710 Robert Bedingfeld, Esq.)

John Smyth le Butcher holds freely of the lord of this manor 2 enclosures of pasture containing, together by estimation, 14 ac. in Debenham, lying between land lately George Harrison's now John Tovell's on the W. and copyhold land of this fee lately John Fayerweather's on the E. and abutting on free land of this fee in the tenure of John Brytton, gent. called Capellfeld to the S. and on land of Blodhall fee called Derehough Brooke to the N., rendering 7s. p.a., lately Thomas Sherman's.

(in margin: 1702 now (blank); 1710 John Simpson, infant.)

* * * * *